Ruby Egit is a litigation associate at Branch MacMaster LLP. She is located in Toronto, Ontario and manages the firm's Toronto office.

Ruby's practice is focused on class actions and insurance law. She has trial and appeal experience and has independently managed and argued many complex contested motions. She acts for clients across Canada.

Ruby began her career at Branch MacMaster in Vancouver with a practice focused on insurance and health law. In 2018 she relocated to Toronto and joined the litigation department of a leading national law firm. She was delighted to return to Branch MacMaster in 2021.

In addition to her work at Branch MacMaster, Ruby regularly volunteers for Pro Bono Ontario. She takes pride in mentoring law students and new lawyers.
